

Phlebotomist Northridge & Oxnard, CA

We are looking for a phlebotomist who draws blood from patients of all ages, verifies records, and prepares specimens for laboratory analysis.

Main Duties:

Maintains a clean and neat work area.

Replaces used supplies as necessary from laboratory stock.

Records & forwards to the data processing department billing information regarding lab test.

Maintains accurate files of lab reports, records, and logs.

Phlebotomists must be able to centrifuge specimens and separate and distribute samples to the appropriate work sites and/or send out locations.

Requirements:

- Requires a high school diploma
- California phlebotomy license (CPT1)
- 1+ years of related experience
- Reliable transportation
- Must have clean background report and pass drug testing
- Able to cover alternate draw station upon request

Physical Requirements:

- Repeated bending, walking, standing and driving.

We offer competitive compensation and benefits, including: health, dental, vision and life insurance, generous vacation, Holiday and 401(k). Please send resume with salary requirements to employment@unitedwestlabs.com.